Lizzie Hardage is an Associate Attorney at the firm's Houston office. Most of Ms. Hardage's work focuses on personal injury defense, auto/trucking cases, and general civil litigation.

Lizzie was born and raised in Dallas, Texas. She is a proud graduate of Baylor University where she earned her Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing. She was an active member of her sorority, Alpha Chi Omega, and served in several leadership positions. She also performed as a soloist in Baylor Sing, the largest off-Broadway musical event in the U.S.

Ms. Hardage received a Juris Doctor in 2021 from the University of Houston Law Center. Lizzie served as Chief Articles Editor for the Houston Journal of Health Law & Policy. Further, the Health Law Journal selected Ms. Hardage's Comment discussing pandemic legal policy for publication in Volume 21. Lizzie was honored with the J. Huey O'Toole Award, given to a student who exhibits academic excellence in family law courses. She also received a LEX Award for earning the highest grade in one of her first-year courses.

During her time in law school, Lizzie discovered a passion for litigation. She interned for the Fifth District Court of Appeals in Dallas, as well as the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. She also spent a summer clerking for a Houston-based firm engaged primarily in federal litigation under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA).

Ms. Hardage was admitted to the State Bar of Texas in October 2021.
