Nickoloz Snovely is an Associate Attorney at the firm's Houston office. Most of Mr. Snovely's work focuses on personal injury and general civil litigation.

Mr. Snovely originally hails from Tbilisi, Georgia, but has been a proud Texan since the age of three. Before entering law school, Mr. Snovely earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Southwestern University, where he served three years as the captain of Men's Tennis and led his team to their program's first-ever national ranking.

During law school, Mr. Snovely spent his time outside of the classroom clerking for a prominent Texas trial attorney, gaining valuable and extensive litigation experience along the way. Additionally, Mr. Snovely worked as a clerk for a Houston-based firm engaged primarily in federal litigation under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). He also served as an Associate Articles Editor for the University of Houston Law Center's Houston Business & Tax Law Journal.

Mr. Snovely was admitted to the State Bar of Texas in October 2021.
